Golden Yug

PTTI Vijaypur organizes plantation drive

GY CORRESPONDENT plantation VIJAYPUR, JUNE 5 On the eve of World Environment Day, Principal, Police Technical Principal, Police Technical Training Institute (PTTI) Vijaypur, Ranjit Singh Sambyal-IPS organizes a plantation drive in and around the Institute to promote environmental awareness and responsibility among the trainces and public. trainees and public. The Principal inaugurated the event with the

and said that the plantation drive serves as a powerful reminder of the importance of and an ornamental sapling followed by other GOs of Vorld followed by other GOs of Day, the Institute unical Thereafter the event saw PTTJ) enthusiastic participation singh from the staff, trainees zes a and public who and collectively planted a te to variety of plants, ental including ornamental, and medicinal, herbal, and gue fruit-bearing saplings. On the occasion, Principal tade highlighted the the importance of the event the importance of environmental protection particularly within the context of public services. The event also reinforces the institute's commitment to fostering a sense of environmental responsibility among its members. All staff and trainees have participated in the event. participated in the event district-level workshops across seven organizational districts to commemorate eleven gears of transformative governance under Prime Minister Narendra Modi. The workshops are being conducted with the ain to prepare for forthcoming programmes to take the achievements of the Modi government to the government to the grassroots under the grassroots under the upcoming campaign "Sankalp Se Siddhi Tak". "Sa.-Dr. Narinus.-National Sec ^ Ch. Narinder Singh, BJP tional Secretary & National Secretary & MLA, Ch. Vikram Randhawa, MLA, Priya Sethi, BJP headquarters Incharge & former Minister, BJP Vice-President Aseem Gupta, BJP Secretary & district Prabhari Ayodhya Gupta, former Dy Mayor Baldev Singh Billawaria addressed the workshop

GY CORRESPONDENT

JAMMU, JUNE 5 JAMMU, JUNE 5 The Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP), Jammu & Kashmir, organized district-level workshops

Journey from 'Sankalp' to 'Siddhi' testifies dedication, vision of PM Modi: Dr. Narinder Singh

जिला दक्षिण कार्यश GWC.

Central University of Jammu Celebrates Academic Excellence as 106 students

excel in JRF-UGC, JRF-CSIR-UGC, NET-UGC/CSIR, GATE, and CTET

ALC: NOT THE

of organizational District emphasized Jammu South led by its President Naresh Singh importance of the campaign in highlighting campaign in highlighting the milestones, achievements, and impact of the Modi government over the past decade. Ch. Vikram Randhawa emphasized the importance of strengthening the organization at the booth level and said, "It is our duty to connect with the President Naresh Singh Jasrotia at party headquarters, Trikuta Nagar, Jammu. Dr. Narinder Singh said, "The journey from 'Sankalp' to 'Siddhi' is a testament to the dedication and visionary performance of Primo leadership of Prime Minister Modi. These Minister Modi. These workshops are meant to equip our workers with the right narrative, data, and commitment to reach every household with the message of development, nationalism, and nationalism, service."Dr. Singh politics and governance and added, "Under Modi ji's leadership, women the ji's leadership, women empowerment has become a cornerstone of national progress. These workshops also aim to encourage greater participation of women in the political process." Aseem Gupta motivated the workers to stay connected with the people and listen to their level and said, "It is our connected with the duty to connect with the people and listen to their people, especially the feedback from the ground about how their lives have changed in the last eleven years." Priya Sethi highlighted the role of women in and unged every urged karvakarta to act as bridge between the government and the government and the people. Baldev Singh Billawaria stressed the need to promote government achievements on social and digital platforms. Naresh Singh Jasrotia assured the senior assured the senior leadership of the party that the campaign will be carried out with full mobilization of district units. Meanwhile, BJP also held district level workshops under "Sankalp Se Sidhi Tak" at the following

CENTRAL UNIVERSITY OF JAMMU

Modi Govt realizes dream of Kashmir's rail integration: Kavinder

GY CORRESPONDENT JAMMU, JUNE 5 Senior BJP leader and former Deputy Chief Minister, Kavinder Cupta today hailed Prime Minister Narendra Modi's upcoming inauguration of the Kashmir rail line on June 6 as a "historic miestone" for the people of Jammu and Kashmir and the entire nation. Calling the event and progress", Kavinder said progress, Kavinde an all-weather rail network, fulfilling a longrail pending dream of seamless national seamless national integration. "June 6 will go down in history as the day when Kashmir, our crown, will be linked directly with the

GY CORRESPONDENT JAMMU, JUNE 5 In a bold and time

JAMMU, JUNE 5 In a bold and timely appeal ahead of Prime Minister Narendra Modi's visit to Jammu and Kashmir, Shri Ram Sena

(SRS) Jammu and Kashmir President Rajiv Mahajan has urged the Prime Minister to immediately restore the Darbar Move practice and reinstate full statehood to Jammu and

Kashmir, emphasizing the Jammu's Dusiness and trading ecosystem, which has been reeling under economic distress post the bifurcation of the state. In a statement issued on Thursday, Rajiv Mahajan said the suspension of the traditional Darbar Move the biannual shifting of the biannual shifting of the secretariat and government offices between Jammu and Srinagar – has severely impacted the economic vibrancy of Jammu.

"Darbar Move was not just a governance tradition; it a governance tradition; in was the lifeline of Jammu's revive dire need to 1 Jammu's business development and digital expansion to empowerment of grassroots democracy.

"The rail connectivity Strong India'," he stated. The senior BJP leader said another testament to the that under Prime Minister Modi government's unwavering commitment Modi's leadership, Jammu and Kashmir has history as the day when having a search of the day when having a search of the day when having a search of the day when have a search of the country transformation – from Kavinder emphasized through the Indiam in fr a structure t

SRS calls for restoration of Darbar Move, J&K project-built across challenging Himalayan terrain-showcases the g o v e r n m e n t 's determination to bring every every region of the country into the fold of every region of the country into the fold of development. He noted that the connectivity well and track best will also open up new economic avenues for the youth of Jammu and Kashmir. He appealed to the public to participate in large numbers and witness this historic moment. 'I urge the people of Jammu and Kashmir, especially the youth, to welcome PM Modi in the Holy Town Katra and be part of this proud chapter in our history' he said, adding that with such initiatives, Jammu and Kashmir is not just getting connected not just getting connected by rail—it is being reconnected with its destiny of growth and

JAMMU, JUNE 5 In the last academic session, 106 students Qualified National Test including JRF-UGC, JRF-CSIR-UGC, NET-UGC/CSIR, GATE, CTET

GY CORRESPONDENT

with a st GY CORRESPONENT JAMMI, JUKE 5 In observance of World Environmental Policy Group (EPG), in collaboration with the North Forest Circle of the J&K Forest Department, organised a significant awareness event at Valley Public School, Sporc, centred around the global theme 'Ending Plastic Programme aim of the rogramme aim of the rogramme and the global theme 'Ending Plastic Follution' method and environmental awareness, especially among students. The event commenced with a plantation drive led by the Chief Guess, Mr. rong call to protecting wellands and raising ecological bashsti, Convenor of HrC, Bashsti, Convenor of HrC, deliberate and symbolic initiative by HPC to localize environmental consciousness. "Our objective in organizing this programme in Sopore was to sow the seeds of e n v i r o n m e n t a 1 responsibility among the youth. Ending plastic pollution is more than a campaign—16's pollution is more than a campaign—it's a necessity. The future of our wetlands, rivers, forests, and biodiversity lies in the hands of our students. EPG is a first students. these with the second of our students. EPG is committed to guiding and supporting them on this path, the said Guest of Honour, Zareef Ahmad Zareef, delivered a stirring address in Kashmiri, where he reflected on the deep-rooted cultural relationship between Kashmiris and nature. He

The event commenced with a plantation drive led by the Chief Guest, Mr. Irfan Ali Shah, Conservator of Forests, North Circle, who was joined by other d i g n i t a r i e s , environmentalists, and students. In his address, Mr. Shah highlighted the urgent need to conserve Kashmir's natural ecosystems, including forests, wetlands, lakes like Wular, and rivers like the Jhelum. He said, "We are at a tipping point in e n v i r o n m e n t a 1 degradation Nature is students for this students for this programme is conserved numesion." He applauded EPG's consistent efforts in rooted on acultural relationship between Kashmiris and nature. He lamented the damage caused to the valley's natural beauty and said, 'Plastic pollution and environmental neglect are modern symptoms of our moral disconnect. Nature moral disconnect. Nature was once our companion – we must revive that bond. I urge students to lead this silent revolution." He also recited powerful verses from his poetry centred on the environment, striking an emotional chord with the audience.

mentorship. Vice chancellor of Central University of Jammu Prof Sanjeev Jain and Registrar Prof. Yashwant Singh congratulated successful students, their teachers and parents on their achievement. their achievement. Prof. Sanjeev Jain, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, stated: "We are immensely proud of our students' achievements. Their success reflects the quality of education and academic environment our university strives to provide. We remain the hard work and dedication of the students and the faculty's continuous support and talent and fostering talent and fostering research and innovation."Basically, The National Test including JRF-UGC, UGC National Eligibility Test (NET), JRF-CSIR-UGC, NET-UGC/CSIR, GATE, and CTET conducted by the National Testing Agency, National Testing Agency, a w ar d s fellowships/eligibility to students for doctoral research in universities and research institutes. It is one of India's toughest post-graduet level cost-graduet level cost-graduet decritera to be come an assistant professor an assistant professor career universities/colleges. It also open doors to many other

CSIR-UGC, NET- Studies, Botany, immensely proud of our UGC/CSIR, GATE, and from Central University Zoology, which saw the form Central University Zoology, which saw the data from Central University Zoology, which saw the academic sessions. A total passed the UGC NET the university administration praised opportunities EPG marks World Environment Day at Sopore with a strong call to end plastic pollution Additional Deputy Commissioner Sopore, Mr. Shabbir Ahmad Raina, highlighted the growing environmental challenges faced by the region and called for grassroots action. "Efforts must start from our homes, mohallas, schools and communities. Our youth must become active ruardians of the guardians environment. of the The environment. The administration stands ready to support such initiatives, especially those focused on plantations and public participation," he stated. Dr. Showkat Ahmad, Chief Evention Officer

Chief Executive Officer of Chief Executive Officer of Sopore Municipal Council, emphasised the civic responsibility of residents in managing waste and curbing plastic use. "Plastic pollution cannot be managed by the government alone. Fublic cooperation, awareness, and commitment are essential. It is encouraging to see students coming essemail. It is encouraging to see students coming forward," he said. Dr. Tauseef Ahmad Bhat, co-founder and trustee of EPG, expressed concern over the widespread environmental docerndation, medicalent e n v i r o n m e n t a 1 degradation, particularly the loss of wetlands and water bodies like Wular and Haigam. "We are losing our natural heritage, our lakes, and our rivers. The cost will be irreversible unless we act now. EPG is ready to provide mentorship to youth, build awareness, and partner with educational institutions nstitutions for nvironmental education," he said.

Former Commissioner of Former Commissioner of Srinagar Municipal Corporation, Dr. G. N. Qasha, stressed the urgency of systemic action against plastic waste. Ajaz Rasool, EPG trustee, emphasized the need for community-based wetland conservation, while Mohammad Shafi Bachha, former Coservator Wildlife Mohammad Shafi Bachha, former Cosevator Wildlife and member of EFG's Governing Council, called upon students to become biodiversity ambassadors and to protect flora and fauna. Altaf Ahmad Andrabi, former Director of Agriculture, reflected on the impact of environmental day food ay on farming and food ay on farming and the adoption of more sustainable agricultural practices. Ferox Wani, Chairman of the Human Welfare Organisation, appreciated the event's local relevance and said such collaborations between civil society and institutions are critical for restoring ecological balance. institutions are critical to restoring ecological balance The event was ab conducted environmental lawyer and EPG trustee, Nadeem Qadri, who contextualized the legal and civic the legal and civic dimensions of plastic pollution and environmental justice.

Statehood to boost Jammu's business sector Hoteliers, transporters, retailers, restaurants, and thousands of daily wage earners relied on the sixplanning suited to regional needs. "Since Jammu and Kashmir became a Union Territory, thousands of daily wage earners relief on the six-month government presence here. Its discontinuation has triggered a prolonged economic lull in the city," Mahajan stated. He further added that while the intention behind ending Darbar Move was cited as saving public funds, the larger consequence has been economic stagnation in Jammu. 'Jammu used to bustle with activity during the Durbar months. Now the markets are dull, footfall is low, and traders of the prove must be required," he emphasized. Mahajan auto growth, then the Darbar Move must be resumed," he emphasized. Mahajan also demanded the immediate restoration became a Union Territory, there is a growing sense of alienation among the people. The business community, in particular, feels sidelined. Decisions are being taken without adequate consultation, and there is little scope for local voices to be heard in policymaking." Mahajan remarked. Hiobliobtine the plicht of cited "as saving public funds, the larager consequence has been economic stagnation in jammu." [ammu used to bustle with activity during the Durbar months. Now the markets are dull, are strugging to survice. If the government really wants is promote updatable growth, then the Darbar Move must be under unprecedented the immediate restoration of state-level financial or studies to loganomic manet." (as the state resumed," he emphasized, thangain the state and the immediate restoration of state-level financial packages, lack of tax ior a thrugging state of state-level financial contrability, transparent governance, and economic difficult to sustain governance, and economic mater board accountability, transparent the government must undertake to support Jammu's economic revival by revival of Darbar Move to ensure equitable administrative and administrative and economic focus and restoration of full statehood to enhance regional governance and economic autonomy. "The time has come to give Jammu its due. We are not against the progress of Kashmir, but Jammu must not be neglected. Restoring Darbar Move and Statehood will not only boost business morale but also create employment, revive trade, and restore public confidence in governance," Mahajan concluded.His statement has resonated strongly across the local trade bodies, with many welcoming the call as a step in the right direction. As Jammu awaits As Jammu awaits economic rejuvenation, stakeholders hope the government listens to these urgent pleas for justice and balanced regional davalement development

GDC Darhal organizes World Environment Day.

GY CORRESPONDENT GY CORRESPONDENT JAMMU, JUNE 5 In celebration of World Environment Day, the Government Degree College Darhal (GDC Darhal) organized a special event today to raise awareness about en v ir o n m en ta 1 conservation and sustainability. The event saw a great turnout of students, faculty members, and local students, faculty members, and local community members who gathered to mark this morotant day.The event vas organized and coordinated by the NSS constitution of their ving, headed by Dr.MohdAkhala and the environment. DA between the series of informative series of informative series of informative series of informative protactive steps towards sustainable living Speaking at the event, Prot.ZA Mirza, Principal GDC Darhal emphasized the need for collective action to address pressing environmental issues and highlighted the role that educational institutions like GDC Darhal can play environment. like GDC Darhal can play in promoting series of informative sessions and talks on the sessions and talks on the our planet and talking proactive steps towards sustainable living Speaking at the event, Prof. ZA Mirza, Principal GDC Darhal emphasized CSIR-UGC, NET-UGC/CSIR GATE, CTET and qualified for PhD admission in different subjects from Central University of Jammu. Master's degree final year in Science or Arts faculy students at Central University of Jammu have not only cleared University Grants Commission-National Eligibility Test or UGC NET in large numbers i.e., approximately 21 but have also cracked the Junior Research Fellowship (IRF). The National Testing Agency (NTA), which conducted the different National Test exams including IRF-UGC, IRF-CSIR-UGC, NET-UGC/CSIR, GATE, and CTET in different subjects from Central University (National Eligibility Test), while 20 students cleared the GATE (Graduate Aptitude Test in the GATE (Graduate Aptitude Test in Engineering), 34 passed the CTET (Central Teacher Eligibility Test), 5 students passed the SET (State Eligibility Test), and 12 qualified the CSIR NET (Council of Scientific and Industrial Research -National Eligibility Test). Special recognition was also given to departments such as Educational Studies, Botany, C h e m is t r y , Biotechnology, and Zoology, which saw the